Little Blessings PDO provides children with a positive, loving, Christian environment in which to interact with other children. Children will learn the necessary academic and social skills for a smooth transition into the elementary school system.

To enroll into the program or be placed on the waitlist, please complete the registration form and return it to Little Blessings along with the registration fee. Once your registration is received, you will receive a phone call or letter if a position is available. If no position is currently available, your child will receive a waitlist number.

We are currently registering for the 2009—2010 school year.
